Dear Sir:

On October 18, 2006, a telephonic interview was conducted in which Jacob Rower and Mark Zimmerman participated for the Patent and Trademark Office and Elliott D. Light and Jon L. Roberts participated for Applicant. A second interview was conducted on October 24, 2006 in which Jacob Rower and Mark Zimmerman participated for the Patent and Trademark Office and Elliott D. Light participated for Applicant.

In the initial interview, Applicant submitted claim amendments and pointed to issues regarding the differences between the current invention and the prior art of record in Harris and Walker and their combination. While reviewing Walker, it was found that the reference does not disclose the limitation of the content control identifier as specified in the claims. In the second interview the Examiners and Applicant agreed that while Harris was limited to only printing the address and name information on the cover of a customizable magazine (booklet). It was further noted, that the submitted claim amendment, specifying a "signature" in place of "component" in accordance with applicant's clarification of "signature" provided in the specification on page 8, appears to overcome the Harris Jr Reference. Applicant indicated that a response to the previous office action incorporating the issues discussed would be provided.

Respectfully Submitted,
